

Shelter Not the Shadows

*Shelter not the shadows, love
For they reap only regret.
Sacrifice the surface, love;
Instead, the Lord's light let
It shine and shimmer into the dark,
In those rooms that hidden be,
And there reside in radiant arc –
The joy of Jehovah to see.*

*Relinquish all your rights to Him
And in silence step aside.
Just listen to the Lord of Love,
In His glory and goodness abide.*

*Dream not of darkness, dear
For what awaits is light.
Hold up the shield of faith, not fear
And witness His wonder and might.
The Lord, chose His children before
The first tick of time.
And no one can snatch those sinners afore
From the cleansing of every crime.*

*Worship now the One who forgives
And does away with the deeds,
For hope and peace one humbly lives
When the Lord Jesus Christ leads.*
